SECTION 8. PERFORMANCE VIDEO

Applicants to the M.F.A. in Classical Chinese Dance degree program must submit a video file of 10 to 15 minutes in length of the applicant performing classical Chinese dance. The video must have been recorded within six months of the date of application. The recording must be unedited and clearly labeled with the applicant's full name and a list of the repertoire performed therein. After review of the recording and application, applicants who advance to the next round may be scheduled for a live audition.

Applicants to the Mus.M. degree program must submit an unedited video recording or concert/recital recording of between 10 to 30 minutes in length. For Western instrument applicants, repertoire must be from the Baroque, Classical, and/or Romantic periods. Applicants should choose works that best represent their individual artistry and highest technical ability. The recording must have been made within six months of the date of application. Recordings must be clearly labeled with the applicant's full name, instrument, and a list of the repertoire performed therein. It is not required that the technical quality of the recording be up to professional studio standards, but the sound quality should be as good as is feasible. After review of the recording and application, applicants who advance to the next round may also be scheduled for a live audition.

The media type of the video could be a viewable online video link (e.g., Youtube or Vimeo), a video file sharing link (e.g., Google Drive, Microsoft OneDrive, or Dropbox), or a DVD that contains recording(s) of the applicant's performance. Electronic video file submissions may also be made via e-mail, but the video file size must not exceed 8MB.
